2018 Grand Challenges Mini Symposium

Tuesday, May 8, 2018 in the AgriLife Center
8:30 a.m.-4:00 p.m.

Solving Food Adulteration and Safety in a Diverse Global Food System &
A Data Driven Food, Agriculture and Natural Resource Future

Morning Session: Solving Food Adulteration and Safety in a Diverse Global Food System

8:30 am Light Breakfast
9:00 am Opening Remarks
9:15 am Theme Areas
11:30 am Summary

“Meeting the needs of a global food market for a more diverse and safer tomorrow through research, education, and outreach.”

Lunch provided in AgriLife Center

Afternoon Session: Data Driven Agriculture

1:00 pm Opening Remarks
1:15 pm AgriLife Research (Big) Data
2:15 pm External (Big) Data Solutions
3:15 pm Breakout Sessions

“Leading data driven discovery and actionable decision making in food, agriculture, and natural resources.”

RSVP by May 3: https://grandchallenges.tamu.edu/2018-mini-symposium/

If you need a parking pass the day of the event please email
Dawn Kerstetter at dkerstetter@tamu.edu